decision over the Hustlers this afternoon in the eleventh frame of a beautiful engagement. The Richmonders won on points, having outbatted the locals by one hit, while the Rochester aggregation suffered one slip in the field which was fatal. It was not much of a margin, but was sufficient to give the visitors the opening game of the series here. Ten times in a row the goose-egg emblem was hung up in the Rochester column.

Rebel Ross and Bugs Hersche were in points for Richmond and Rochester, respectively. While neither twirled airtight ball, both managed to keep in elither twirled airtight ball, both managed to keep in hit Richmonder. Who was strong in the latter stages of the contest. His teammates played errorless hall behind him, their support at times being of high-class order. The Hustlers in the Richmonder from the batt of Everett Bankston. The ball should have been fielded cleanly, however, and daylong the right when Rabbington fuzzled a sizzling hot grounder from the batt of Everett Bankston. The ball should have been fielded cleanly, however, and his throw got away from Hoelke.

Clemens Opened With Double.

Things took on a gloomy aspect for the Hustlers in the first frame, when Clemens, the one-time Hustler, celebrated his return to Rochester by slamming the ball against the rightfield fence for two bags. He was kept, there, however, when Elbel, Hendryx and Bankston went out in regular order. The locals duplicated the work of the Climbers, in that Farrell led off in the opening frame with a two-base blow. They were a little luckler, however, as Farrell annexed third after Babbington had gone out on a fly to right. He then romped home when Jacobson hit to short? Jacobson went out trying to steal and "Sloam fanned.

Richmond got hits in the second and third, while Ross was not touched in those frames. Hersche, however, work-od-splendidly and there were little.

TWIN BILL IS OFFERING AGAINST HUSTLERS TO-DAY

CLIMBERS TO DOUBLE UP

McKenry and Humphreys Will Work,

Owing to the number of postponed games, caused by bad weather this month, double-headers will be in order over the International League circuit. Richmond and Rochester will stage a twin bill this afternoon, with the first game getting under way at 2 o'clock. Both games will be shown on The Times-Dispatch scoreboard. In spite of the steady downpour of rain yesterday a crowd of several hundred fans watched the Bilismiths snatch a game from the Hustlers in the eleventh. The day a crowd of several hundred fans watched the Bilismiths snatch a game from the Hustlers in the eleventh. The service went through without a single interruption from any cause.

A wire from Billy Smith last night announced that McKenry and Humphreys will probably work for the Richmond crew to-day. The big boy will be sent in first, while Lefty will twirl the sunset setto. Both are in fairly good shape for effective work, although the wet, cold weather has been playing havoc with the Billsmiths.

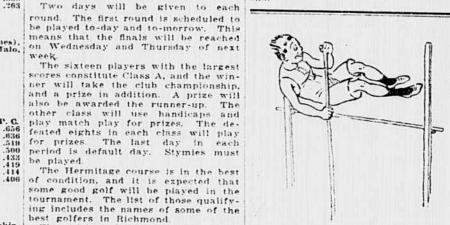

Three members of the team are now playing on sheer nerve. Hack Eibel has been under the care of physicians ever since the team left home. He has been fighting off an attack of tonsilitis, and from his hitting yesterday it is evident that he is getting a strangle hold on the enemy. Captain Red McDermott and Sandy Roche have deep colds that hamper their work. Billy Smith also is not up to snuff, the weather being too much for him. Through the victory yesterday, while the Indians and Orioles were losing. Richmond has a good hold on the top position to-day. On this same date last season Richmond was also on top, but the present team has a much better chance of sticking where it now is than the Dunnies ever had.

Since leaving home. Richmond has played five games, four of which it won. Three of these games have gone into extra innings. In three of the games the team has played errorless baseball. The team has had 232 chances in the field of which 223 were accepted perfectly. The team has worked a number of double plays, and has also produced a triple play. Only four errors have been made, the team fielding for a grand average of 359.

The batting, of course, has fallen off somewhat. Hendryx and McDermott have done the best work, each getting seven hits in twenty-three times at bat. O'Donnell has hatted five times, getting two hits. Roche, the new infielder, has only secured six hirs in nineteen times up, but his average, 216 is not so had at that.

With the pitchers going good, Richmond will at least get one of the games t CHAMPIONSHIP OF CLUB Each Round Will Take Two Days, With Finals Coming Thursday of Next Week.

Hermitage Golf Club. The qualifying rounds have just been completed, after a week of play, and starting to-day. In event that Richmond gets them both, the Billsmiths will have then cleaned up on every team they have met this season. The count with Rochester now stands three to two, with the Hustlers hugging the big will continue through next Thursday, end,
